RE: Levi Huebner v. Midland Credit Management, Inc.
Docket Number 1:14-cv-06046-BMC

Dear Judge Cogan:

As the Court is aware, on September 30, 2016, Plaintiff's counsel Leopold Gross applied for and was granted leave to file Exhibits H, I and J to Plaintiff's Response to the motion for sanctions of Midland Credit Management, Inc. and Midland Funding LLC ("Midland"). Midland has not yet received copies of the documents Plaintiff filed under seal via mail, email, ECF or otherwise.

I emailed Mr. Gross yesterday evening, asking that he or one of Plaintiff's other counsel email me the sealed exhibits. Receiving no response, I called Mr. Gross, who stated he was traveling but would address my request upon his return to the office. Minutes later, Mr. Gross filed ECF document 131, which purports to consist of Plaintiff's Exhibits H, I and J; however, I am unable to access that document. I called Mr. Gross back but received his voicemail. Mr. Gross did not immediately return my message.

Midland's reply brief is due October 7, 2016. As Midland has not yet been served Plaintiff's full response, Midland respectfully requests that the Court order Plaintiff to serve all sealed exhibits accompanying his response in opposition to Midland's motion for sanctions forthwith. Midland further requests seven days to reply to Plaintiff's response after Midland's receipt of Plaintiff's sealed exhibits.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Matthew B. Johnson
